

MANY BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENTS BEING PLANNED

Not in many years has there been such a brilliant social calendar. After the lack of pleasurable activity during the war period and the half-hearted pleasures of more recent years, the round of events planned in this city for the coming season is a most notable feature on the November calendar.

MISS SARA GRAHAM

—Heath Photograph
A very charming young girl who will be the recipient of much social attention during the Hallowe'en season is Miss Sara Graham, who is here from Pennsylvania as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. F. Ainsworth. She will be here until December 1, when she will go to San Diego to be an attendant at a smart wedding, returning here for a fortnight on her way east. Miss Graham was one of the most admired guests at the membership dinner at the Country club on Friday evening.

Pen Women, who will be remembered here as Ada Lee Orme. Mrs. Du Puy, who is a sister of Mrs. Ernest Lewis, has won quite a bit of fame as a writer both for newspapers and magazines. Just now she is in New York as the guest of the New York League of American Pen Women, who propose to give a series of literary and social affairs in her honor. The president of the New York league, Mrs. Ruth Mason Rice, gave one at the home of Mrs. Alice McKay Kelly on Friday evening.
